Part D - FINAL DECLARATION

Please read these notices and sign the declaration at the bottom

Note The statement “Associated Waters” means the body of water together with its banks and shores as stated in the permit.

Warning Angling can be a dangerous sport and caution must be taken. Lochs and rivers can be in isolated locations and deep in places. Rivers can also be swift flowing. Great care must be taken when wading or walking the banks of Lochs or Rivers as these may be boggy or have concealed holes and/or burns.

Safety You are responsible for your own safety whilst fishing any Association Water. The wearing of a life jacket or buoyancy aid when on these waters is highly recommended.

Declaration I have read and understand the above notices.
